PGR Invitation Script

PGR Host Agenda:

Use the start of the reception as a mix and mingle time depending on the time you have scheduled with your Director.

Welcome everyone . Share a 2-3 minute story about yourself and why you got involved with the company. Thank guests for coming and taking a look. Show the VIDEOS (20 min) and then SKYPE or CALL your upline Director who will help CLOSE the PGR.

Please edify your Director in front of your group and then edify your group to your up-line Director. Let him or her know how many are in the room with you, ahead of time. This is very important to set the stage and give your Director the right to speak and build them up so that people really want to hear from them!

Director tells his/her story

Call to action 1:

Do you have any questions? Wait for response.... No, that's great let's get your free account now. Start saving. No logical reason not to.

If yes, answer specific question, try not to get on another topic.

Focus back on getting free account. Is there anything else we need to clear up? No, great, (host sponsor) please set your guest up with his free account.

Call to action 2:

Are you interested in sharing this with others, great, we have a wealth creation side of this business and a Unique Team First Strategy that will set everyone up for the biggest chance to win. We can teach you how important and simple it is to build as a team, where no one gets left behind even as a beginner gold saver. Look over the wealth creation site if interested in sharing with friends.

Take a break, get your free account, get on our mailing list, be a part of the team, not apart from the team.

It is our job to inspire you to take some action, make your list of people, schedule your own PGR and call your top 25 from your list. Get excited with what we have our hands on and start building your business today.

It was a pleasure talking to you, here is my phone number if ever you have questions please call me. I look forward to meeting you sometime.
